Finding follows: Record review on 1/5/17 revealed Client #1's Behavior Management Program (BMP) to decrease behavioral outbursts, signed by the Qualified Intellectual Disability Professional (QIDP) 8/3/16. The BMP identified target behaviors as: physical aggression (any action with the intention of causing physical harm to others such as: hitting, kicking, biting, or throwing objects), self-injurious behaviors (biting self, hitting self, punching walls, or any other behavior that could cause injury to self (slapping or hitting my leg does not count)), vocal outbursts (screaming use of profanity, name-calling, and verbal threats), property destruction (breaking own property or the property of others), and elopement (leaving a building, attempting to or threatening to, when upset with the intention of running away). Restrictive measures identified in the BMP included the use of behavior modifying medications, restricted access to his/her Kindle, a physical hold, a physical move, physical move with a transfer blanket or a wheelchair, separation, and time-out. The BMP instructed staff to record any behavioral outburst on a behavior report form and complete the restraint log if a physical hold, physical move, use of transfer blanket/wheelchair, separation, or time-out was utilized. The BMP failed to instruct staff to document each target behavior exhibited during a behavioral outburst. Review of the Behavior Report form revealed staff were to document the date, time, location, nature of the incident (narrative), action taken by staff, how the client was following the incident, and a restraint log. Based on interviews and record reviews, the facility failed to ensure staff implemented Client Behavior Management Programs (BMPS) as written and/or to revise the program to incorporate all interventions staff were instructed to utilize.

Program BEH-2 to decrease Behavioral outburst has been revised to include Elopement as a Behavioral outburst. Intervention techniques have been revised to include methods to take if a behavioral outburst including elopement occurs. Program has also been revised to include interventions that may be used in the event an outburst continues to escalate which would include visual checks on a more frequent basis, every 5 minutes. Increased supervision will take place in the event he/she threatens to run. Staff will have visual at all times. Methods of intervention used are to be included in the program. Chart audits will take place on a monthly basis to assure restrictive methods are specifically referred to in the programming requiring specific restrictions. Documentation has been revised to include all applicable restrictive methods including attempts to elope. Re-training of Staff was completed on the 6th of January, 2017.
