50.7(5)	481—50.7(10A,135C) Additional notification. The director or the director's designee shall be notified within 24 hours, or the next business day, by the most expeditious means available (I,II,III): 50.7(5) When a resident attempts suicide, regardless of injury. DESCRIPTION: Based on clinical record review and staff interview, the facility failed to report Resident #5's attempts of self harm within 24 hours to Department of Inspections and Appeals (DIA) for one (1) of ten (10) residents. The facility reported a census of 32 residents. Findings included: A Minimum Data Set (MDS) assessment dated 2/7/17, revealed Resident #5's diagnoses included anxiety disorder, depression and post-traumatic stress disorder. The MDS revealed a Brief Interview for Mental Status (BIMS) score of 15 indicating the resident's memory and cognition as intact. The assessment revealed the resident required no assistance from staff with transfer or ambulation in his/her room and had no impairment in range of motion in either upper or lower extremities. The MDS documented the resident verbalized feeling down, depressed or hopeless, had trouble falling asleep, felt bad about him/her and had thoughts of being better off dead or hurting his/her on several days during the 2 week assessment period. Resident #5's Care Plan, with a problem onset date of	II	$500.00	Upon Receipt

	1/9/17, included an intervention for the resident to use oxygen (O2) daily via a nasal cannula. The resident's care plan identified he/she will have no adverse side effects or injury from use of psychotropic medications. Staff will monitor his/her behaviors, report concerns and redirect if able. Staff will continually assess the resident's physical and emotional need for medication. According to Nurse's Notes dated 2/11/17 at 3:00 P.M., staff documented the resident removed his/her oxygen (O2) from his/her nose, stated he/she wanted to go to sleep and die and proceeded to wrap the O2 tubing around his/her neck and said "just let me die". Resident #5 then proceeded to talk about cutting him/her(self) and bleeding out. The same note dated 2/11/17 at 3:00 P.M. continued onto a following page and staff misdated the entry writing 2/12/17 instead of 2/11/17. At 3:00 P.M. Resident #5 stated he/she wanted to take 100 oxycodone (for pain) pills, overdose and die. The resident stated he/she had a knife and wanted to cut him/herself to death. Staff placed the resident on 5 minute observations and conducted a room search for sharp objects. The next nurse's notes misdated 2/12/17 at 3 p.m., revealed Staff removed the pocket knife combo, butter knife, scissor and nail clippers from his/her room and called the new administrator. The nurse's notes misdated 2/12/17 [2/11/17] at 5:30 p.m., revealed the resident told the aide he/she took a bunch of pills and was fading fast. There was no evidence of pills in his/her room prior and at that time. Staff documented five minutes late the resident walked down the hall smiling. The nurse's notes misdated 2/12/17 [2/11/17] late entry 4 p.m. revealed resident at the nurses desk asking for oxygen tank and staff went to grab keys and they were initially missing. Staff made three attempts for the resident to go to the hospital, however the resident refused. The nurse's note dated 2/13/17 at 6:30 a.m., identified Resident #5 had been yelling due to pain and staff administered pain medication. Resident #5 explained he/she wanted his/her things back including his/her utility tool and scissors. The next nurse's notes dated 2/13/17 at 8:45 a.m., revealed staff contacted the physician for an immediate psych evaluation for the resident due to statements of self harm per notes of weekend. During interview on 5/2/17 at 2:45 P.M., the facility interim Director of Nursing confirmed staff misdated the entry on 2/11/17 at 3:00 P.M., and should have been dated 2/12/17. A facility report to DIA, revealed facility staff reported the above incident (that occurred on 2/12/17 at 3:00 P.M.) on 2/15/17 at 12:56 P.M., approximately 3 days later (exceeding the required 24 hour reporting period). During interview on 5/1/17 at 11:30 A.M., the facility Administrator confirmed the above incident had not been reported timely as the Administrator in charge at
