	1. Record review on 10/9/17 revealed an Opportunity Living Incident Report completed on 7/10/17 at 8:20 a.m. by Staff A. The report described Staff A walked to the front entry and noticed Client #1 across the street. Nursing Assessment completed without any injuries noted. Client returned to the house cooperatively with the staff. Client #1-19 years old and had diagnoses including but not limited to: Intellectual Disability, legally blind, seizures, cerebral palsy and Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD). Client #1 was admitted to the facility on 4/12/2016. Client #1's annual evaluation completed on 6/6/17 included the following for his/her home supervision level: He/She "has a history of leaving the home unattended. This is usually just (his/her) way of exploring (his/her) environment or because (he/she) wants to be outside. (He/She) is not attempting to run away but does not have safety skills to protect (himself/herself) should (he/she) wander outside. Staff must be aware of where (Client #1) is at all times. When not in the living or dining room area of (his/her) home (he/she) is checked on every 15 minutes and during the hours of sleep (he/she) is checked on every 30 minutes." Record review on 10/11/17 revealed Client #1's Comprehensive Functional Assessment (CFA) completed 6/6/17. The section addressing survival skills documented "not applicable"for"crosses streets safely" and "travels about community safely".

	According to Weather Underground the temperature was 78 degrees with no precipitation at that time on 7/10/17. When interviewed on 10/12/17 at 1:00 p.m. Staff A explained Client #1 was in the living/dining room when she went back to the bedroom area. When she returned she did not see Client #1 and noticed he/she was across the street. She remembered the client took off his/her shirt while outside. She stated Staff B was in the living room/dining room area with Client #1 when she went to the back of the house. She said the client wore shorts, a t-shirt and tennis shoes. She returned the client to the house. She was aware of clients' supervision level and had been trained on the proper level of supervision the client required for safety. She admitted the client would not be safe outside because the client was "legally blind." Interview with a bus driver from a different house on 10/11/17 at 2:00 p.m. revealed he was by the bus at House E waiting to assist clients to load. He noticed a person walk out of House A holding their hands in front of them like they were looking at a phone. Then he noticed the person did not have a phone and was wandering. He did not know the client and observed the client sit for about 5 seconds in the middle of the street. The client soon got up and walked across the street towards House B. He called House A and at the same time a staff person came out of House A and assisted the client back inside the house. He guessed the client walked about 35 feet from his/her house. He

He did not know how the client got outside. He thought the client had been in his bedroom. He was aware of the clients' supervision level and had been trained regarding the clients' needs. Observation on 10/9/17 at 12:00 noon revealed Client #1 completed lunch. Client #1 carried dishes to the sink and walked around the house. He/She walked around the house holding own hands in front of body to protect from walking into doors/objects. Eyes remained closed. Staff assisted and verbally prompted Client #1 to maneuver in the home. Observation of the area on 10/9/17 at 1:00 p.m. revealed a residential area with a 25 mile per hour (mph) speed limit. The paved street had sidewalks and contained no other dangers beside traffic. The area between House A and B was flat and easy to view people standing in the street/sidewalk. When interviewed on 10/11/17 at 1:15 p.m. the cook explained she was in the kitchen when Client #1 was noticed across the street. She remembered Staff A noticed the client and went outside to return the client to the home. She stated Staff B was up front in the home. Another staff was in the bedroom area assisting other clients.

He did not know how long the client was outside. He watched the client and as soon as he saw the CMA leave House A he pointed so she could see him/her. He added the client did not wear socks however the weather was nice. When interviewed on 10/9/17 at 2:00 p.m. the Qualified Intellectual Disability Professional (QIDP) explained Client #1 wandered out of the home the first time in May [2017]. Every staff was retrained on 5/30/17. The training sheet documented: "Staff are responsible for knowing where all clients in the home are at all times. If a staff must go to another area of the home to assist with a client and they are responsible for a client that has attempted to or has left the home without staff knowing, they must give responsibility for the client to another staff prior to going to the other area of the home. If this is not done and that client leaves the home unattended, staff will be written up and suspended without pay. The decision as to who is written up will be up to the discretion of the home supervisor pending her investigation. The first incident of this occurring will result in a one day suspension. The second incident of this occurring will result in a three day suspension. The third incident of this occurring will result in termination. The majority of clients living at Opportunity Living do not have the safety skills to be outside on their home without staff supervision. This means they could and would walk
