	Transportation Manual revealed on page 14 in section 8 regarding "Leaving the Bus at the End of the Route" drivers were directed to "Check all seats for riders by walking through the entire length of the bus. A good practice is to check the right side while walking to the back of the bus and the other side while walking forward. Riders may be sleeping or too short for you to see." On 5/8/18 at 10:20 AM, Staff A stated he had just returned to work after being off for 60 days for medical reasons. When he returned to work, he had a different bus to drive with higher seats and different residents as passengers. When asked if it was procedure to do a "walk-through" of the bus after each trip, Staff A stated "No." When asked if he had received a copy of the Transportation Manual, he stated he had never seen it prior to the incident on 3/16/18. Interview with the Associate Data
